THE LARKIN IDEA

IN OUR OWN COMMUNITY

For years we have stood by and seen the out-of-the-state concerns do the business. We think it about time to go after a little ourselves. We are now able to put a proposition before you that once tried and honestly compared with other plans perhaps will enable us to divert a few of those orders our way.

Remember, first of all, that if we had not got a good thing, and in many particulars better than the other fellows, we would not try to interest you in this undertaking. One thing is sure, we cannot hoodwink you in this, for you have your own eyes. You can see the premiums. You can see the Soaps before you ever make the purchase.

HERE IT IS
